8.2.3 - Does your university as a body have a policy on ending discrimination in the workplace (including discrimination based on religion, sexuality, gender, age)?

Equality, Justice and Tolerance Policy

In continuation of UBT's efforts to end discrimination in the workplace, and in addition to already existing UBT HR policies and procedures that will be covered in this report, it is essential to start with UBT's recently updated policy titled 'Equality, Justice and Tolerance Policy' [Refer to Evidence 1 for more details about the policy content], which tackles aspects related to discrimination, gender equality, pay-scale, accessibility, harassment, disabilities, as well as clear policies and procedures to report any cases and how to protect those reporters. Some of the policy articles include:

- UBT is fully committed to fighting discrimination against its employees/Students based on religion, gender, nationality, disability, and age.
- UBT provides non-discriminatory educational opportunities and is fully committed to it based on indifference towards social statuses, gender, religion, sects, or disabilities.
- UBT is committed to eliminating discrimination or prejudice against women based on Gender.
- Male and female representation in UBT councils and committees is based on their merits, expertise, and backgrounds.
- UBT provides equal facilities and services for each gender and respects the privacy of its students, staff, and faculty members with full access to all resources.
- Others

UBT HR ByLaws

In addition to the 'Equality, Justice, and Tolerance Policy,' it is important to indicate that UBT governing laws and regulations are well aligned with the Saudi Ministry of Human Resources and Social Development Requirements, which emphasize important values, including fairness and equality. Indeed, UBT HR Policies and Procedure – Item No. 14 is related to UBT's "Code of Conduct", which emphasizes the importance of providing a healthy working environment that respects all employees regardless of their gender, race, and nationality. Additionally, the policy highlights misconduct acts, which include any form of discrimination (Colour, Race, Gender, Age, Abilities, both physical or mental).

Clear Governance and Performance Appraisal

Each employee is given specific duties according to assigned job and at the end of the year, employees go through unified evaluation process, which is based on performance and outcomes achieved. Moreover, recently UBT have updated its faculty Performance Evaluation Form and the employees performance evaluation form (Evidence No. 4), that demonstrates the updated evaluation process and forms, which is approved by Faculty members/employees, and their direct managers. To ensure the fairness of the performance evaluation process, Performance Evaluation Committee is formed and reports а its outcomes/recommendation directly to University President (Evidence No. 5 -Faculty Performance Evaluation Committee). Furthermore, clearly defined academic promotional guidelines are strictly followed and monitored by UBT

Women's Participation in International Trips, Research and Development Opportunities

Female faculty can equally supervise students' educational trips (Nationally and Internationally). Indeed, these trips are organized by the Deanship of Scientific Research, which a female faculty member leads. These recent trips include UN-New York, France, Italy, UAE, Egypt, and Others. In their UN-New York Visit, students modeled cases of countries' contributions to realizing the UN SDGs, including SDG8 (Evidence No. 7 – Educational Trips Reports).

The tables below demonstrate male and female participation numbers during the 2023 and 2024 periods. (UBT Training Center (increased from 8 workshops to 39 workshops), as well as enhanced the number of national and international trips (5 national & 2 international). Also, it can be noted that both genders have fair representation through both 2023 and 2024 activities.

UBT also encourages all faculty, regardless of gender and nationality, to participate in various academic conferences and venues to enhance the collective research production of UBT. Indeed, in 2024, UBT engaged with more than 4 agreements internationally, among which were led by female researchers. Furthermore, in 2024, 18 UBT faculty participated in conferences, including 16 female faculty members (vs 2 males). Finally, research publications through an international network reached 12 nationalities. They included the engagement of 73 researchers (54 male and 19 female) for a total number of publications, of which 57 were published by a female and a male published 282.
